

caddon multispectral technology - can:colors

can:colors

Functionality:

Spectral database for

1. Hosting of color standards

- Incl. source multispectral images as a legend
- Provision of measurement data from different measurement systems for a color standard

2. Digital color search and comparison to color standards

- Production standard and customers samples online and remotely
- Color distance between pigment formulation / digital Printers color space and customers samples online and remotely

3. Digital online color-communication

- Customers search next available matching color standard to customers colors via online-client

4. Generating digital colorbooks from spektral color pallets

- ACO/ACB for Adobe- and other applications, as well for colorizing digital textures for CGI